

Subject: NATO as a political and military alliance Subject code: Faculty of Logistics Faculty of National Security and/or Faculty of Homeland Security Social Sciences and Security Institute	obligatory: Yes eligible: - language: English.
Kind of study: B.Sc.	Area: National Defence
Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	10/ X	20/+
ECTS points				2,5

Author of the syllabus: Eugeniusz CIEŚLAK, PhD

Leading lectures: Eugeniusz CIEŚLAK, PhD

Main goals of education:

To familiarize students:

- With basic knowledge related to NATO as a political and military alliance
- With purpose, structures and activities related to NATO as a political and military alliance

Relation to the other subjects:

- Fundamentals of security and defence theory, international law of armed conflict, contemporary political systems

Preliminary requirements:

-

Scope:

- Introduction to alliance and coalition politics
- Washington treaty as a foundation of NATO
- Historic developments of NATO
- NATO strategic concepts and summit declarations
- NATO civilian and military structures, organizations and agencies
- NATO activities and operations

References:

- NATO Handbook, NATO Information Office. Brussels 2016.
- A short history of NATO. Brussels 2012.
- Secretary General's Annual Report. Brussels 2015.

- NATO Encyclopedia. Brussels 2015.

Final mark:

- Competency test.
- Evaluation of group exercise.

Subject: NATO Crisis Management Subject code: WLOPXCSL-NCM Faculty of Logistics Faculty of National Security and/or Faculty of Homeland Security Social Sciences and Security Institute		obligatory: Yes eligible: -  language: English.
Kind of study: B.Sc.	Area: National Defence	Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	10/ X	20/+
ECTS points				2,5

Author of the syllabus: Eugeniusz CIEŚLAK, PhD

Leading lectures: Eugeniusz CIEŚLAK, PhD

Main goals of education:

To familiarize students:

- With basic concepts related to NATO crisis management and crisis response operations
- With doctrine and lessons learned from NATO non-Article 5 Crisis Response Operations

Relation to the other subjects:

- Fundamentals of security and defence theory, international law of armed conflict, contemporary political systems

Preliminary requirements:

-

Scope:

- Crisis management in NATO strategic concepts and summit declarations
- NATO civilian and military structures, organizations and agencies for crisis management
- NATO military doctrine for non-Article 5 Crisis Response Operations
- Cooperation between NATO and other organizations in the field of crisis management
- Lessons learned from NATO non-Article 5 Crisis Response Operations

References:

- NATO Handbook, NATO Information Office. Brussels 2016.
- A short history of NATO. Brussels 2012.
- Secretary General's Annual Report. Brussels 2015.
- NATO Encyclopedia. Brussels 2015.

- AJP-3.4 NATO Doctrine for Non-Article 5 Crisis Response Operations.
- P. V. Jakobsen, NATO's comprehensive approach to crisis response operations. A work in slow progress.
- DIIS Report 2008:15. Copenhagen 2008.

Final mark:

- Competency test.
- Evaluation of group exercise.

Subject: Challenges for Intelligence Communities in the XXI century Subject code: Faculty of National Security and/or Faculty of Homeland Security Social Sciences and Security Institute		obligatory: Yes eligible: - language: English.
Kind of study: Bachelor of Arts Master of Arts	Area: Social Sciences; Security Sciences	Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	10/X	20/+
ECTS points				5

Author of the syllabus: Mirosław Minkina, Assoc.Prof.

Leading lectures: Mirosław Minkina, Assoc.Prof.

Main goals of education:

Provide students with knowledge on:

- The scope of Intelligence
- Intelligence and the Information Age
- Elements of Intelligence

Relation to the other subjects:

- International relations,
- International Security,
- Information Security,
- Defence Studies

Scope:

- Understanding Intelligence
- Intelligence from theory of international relations perspective
- Intelligence process – direction, collection, analysis, dissemination
- Working behind the scenes: covert action
- Spy versus spy: understanding counterintelligence
- Guarding the guardians: the management of intelligence

References:

- Peter Gill, Stephen Marrin, Mark Phythian Intelligence Theory: Key Questions and Debates, Routledge 2008
- Jan Goldman, The Central Intelligence Agency: An Encyclopedia of Covert Ops, Intelligence Gathering and Spies (2 volumes), ABC-CLIO, Santa Barbara California, Denver Colorado 2016.
- Andrei Soldatov, Irina Borogan, The New Nobility: The Restoration of Russia's Security State and the Enduring Legacy of the KGB, PublicAffairs, New York 2010.
- Abram N. Shulsky, Gary J. Schmitt, Silent Warfare. Understanding the World of Intelligence, Potomac Books 2002.
- Secretum Secret Services. Security Information nr 1-4 (chosen articles), Social Sciences and Security Institute of Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities
http://www.secretum.com.pl/en/home-page\_s\_1.html

Final mark:

- Competency test.
- Evaluation of group exercise.
- Providing written "Intelligence Assessment" on chosen Crisis Scenario

Subject: History of Poland Subject code: Faculty of Humanities Institute of Social Sciences and Security		obligatory: Yes eligible: - language: English.
Kind of study: B.Sc.	Area: History	Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	30/X
ECTS points				5

Author of the syllabus: Prof. Dr. habil. Zofia CHYRA-ROLICZ

Leading lectures: Prof. Dr.Habil. Zofia CHYRA-ROLICZ

Main goals of education:

To familiarize students:

- With basic knowledge of History of Poland X – XXI c.
- With problems of a political, economic, social and cultural facts of the Polish history, also international relations

• Relation to the other subjects:

- Fundamentals of
- International relations East, West, South countries

Preliminary requirements:

•

Scope:

- Introduction to political circumstances, alliance and coalition politics X – XXI c.
- Poland between West and East orientation
- Historic developments of Polish culture
- The Polish heritage of the past time
- The role of Poles in the European and world civilisation

References:

- Aleksander Gieysztor and others, History of Poland, PWN, Warszawa 1979.
- Jarosław Krawczyk, On Poland and Poles. A historical tale, Bellona, Warszawa 2004.
- Brian Porter-Szűcs, Poland in the Modern World. Beyond Martyrdom, [A New History of Modern Europe], Blackwell, Malden (Ma USA) Oxford (UK) 2014.

- Adam Zamoyski, Poland. A History, Harper Press, London 2009.

Final mark:

- Competency test
- Colloquium at the end of course.

Subject: History of the co-operative movement in Poland		obligatory: Yes
Subject code:		eligible: -
Faculty of Humanities		language: English.
Institute of Social Sciences and Security
Kind of study: B.Sc.	Area: History	Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	30/X
ECTS points				4

Author of the syllabus: Prof. Dr. habil. Zofia CHYRA-ROLICZ,

Leading lectures: Prof. Dr.Habil. Zofia CHYRA-ROLICZ

Main goals of education:

To familiarize students:

- With basic knowledge of history of Poland XIX– XXI c.
- With problems of a political, economic, social of the Polish history, also developing of international co-operative movement and role of Poland.

• Relation to the other subjects:

- Fundamentals of economic and social history
- International relations East, West countries, history of economy

Preliminary requirements:

•

Scope:

- Introduction to political and economical circumstances XIX – XXI c.
- Poland on the way into political independency
- Historic developments of Polish co-operatives' activity
- The heritage of Polish co-operative movement the past time
- The role of Poles co-operatives leaders in the European and world civilisation

References:

- Jarosław Krawczyk, On Poland and Poles. A historical tale, Bellona, Warszawa 2004.
- Brian Porter-Szűcs, Poland in the Modern World. Beyond Martyrdom, [A New History of Modern Europe], Blackwell, Malden (Ma USA) Oxford (UK) 2014.

- Adam Zamoyski, Poland. A History, Harper Press, London 2009.

Final mark:

- Competency test
- Colloquium at the end of course

Subject: Français diplomatique (French for International Relations) Subject code: Faculty of Humanities Social Sciences and Security Institute		obligatory: No eligible: - language: French.
Kind of study: B.Sc.	Area:	Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	10/ X	20/+
ECTS points				4

Author of the syllabus: Marlena Drygiel-Bielińska, PhD

Leading lectures: Marlena Drygiel-Bielińska, PhD

Main goals of education:

To familiarize students:

- With basic knowledge of French language in world of diplomacy and administration

Relation to the other subjects:

- Fundamentals of international relations and international security

Preliminary requirements:

-

Scope:

- Basics of French (introduction).
- Invitations.
- Elements of diplomatic protocol.
- Correspondence.

References:

- L. Riehl, M-H. Amiot, M. Soignet, Objectif diplomatie 1 - Livre de l'élève.
- Annuaire Français de Relations Internationales.
- Défense & Sécurité Internationale.
- Politique Étrangère.

Final mark:

- Competency test.
- Conversations.
- Evaluation of group exercise.

Subject: Poland's Security Policy Subject code: Faculty of Humanities Social Sciences and Security Institute	obligatory: Yes eligible: - language: English.
Kind of study: B.Sc.	Area: Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	10/ X	20/+
ECTS points				3

Author of the syllabus: Marlena Drygiel-Bielińska, PhD

Leading lectures: Marlena Drygiel-Bielińska, PhD

Main goals of education:

To familiarize students:

- With basic knowledge related to security policy of Poland

Relation to the other subjects:

- Fundamentals of political and security theory, international law, international relations

Preliminary requirements:

- Basic knowledge of international relations and international security

Scope:

- Determinants of Poland's Security Policy
- Poland's Security Strategy
- Polish parties and security policy
- Poland's role in the West (NATO, EU and relations with USA)
- Relations with East (Russia, Ukraine and Belarus)
- Social, economical, political and military security – polish point of view

References:

- J. Zając, Poland's Security Policy, Palgrave Macmillan 2016.
- A. Bieńczyk-Missala, Poland's Foreign and Security Policy: main directions, "Revista UNISCI / UNISCI Journal, N° 40 (Enero/January 2016).
- R. Kuźniar, Poland's Foreign Policy after 1989, Scholar 2009.

Final mark:

- Competency test.

- Debate
- Evaluation of group exercise.

Subject: Crisis management in national security system Subject code: WLOPXCSL-NPM Faculty of Logistics Institute of Social Sciences and Security	obligatory: Yes eligible: - language: English.
Kind of study: B.Sc.	Area: National Security
Specializations: all

semester	Form of education, number of hours / rigour (X - exam, + - credit, # - project)
	altogether	lectures	exercises	laboratories	projects	seminars
winter/ summer	30	15/ X	15/+
ECTS points				4

Author of the syllabus: Paweł Szmitkowski, PhD

Leading lectures: Paweł Szmitkowski, PhD

Main goals of education:

To familiarize students:

- With basic knowledge of crisis management system in Poland and European Union
- With main purpose and tasks of the system in Polish and European environment.

Relation to the other subjects:

- Fundamentals of security and defence theory, international and Polish law of security, elements of Polish and European Union administration.

Preliminary requirements:

- Elementary knowledge about UE and Poland administration system

Scope:

- Introduction to crisis situations and crisis
- Main information about Polish crisis management system in public administration
- Elements of CEP (civil emergency planning)
- Knowledge about crisis management system in UE

References:

- Smith, Denis, and Dominic Elliot. Key readings in crisis management. Routledge, 2006.
- Lerbinger, Otto. The crisis manager. Taylor and Francis, 2012.
- Boin, Arjen. The politics of crisis management: Public leadership under pressure. Cambridge University Press, 2005.
- W. Skomra. Zarządzanie kryzysowe. Praktyczny przewodnik po nowelizacji ustawy, Wrocław 2010.

Final mark:

- Competency test.
- Evaluation of group exercise.